After 200m, follow the lane to the right, at the sign indicating Blakeway Hollow. Go for 1km up the lane, until it flattens out between rows of trees. As the lane then curves to the left, you take a right turn back, through a kissing-gate. 3

Follow the path, keeping the hedge on your left, and go over two more stiles. Head towards the large barn in front of you. Walk along the drive, and then through a small metal gate into an enclosure. 4

Go through a heavy metal gate, and turn right. 5 Then, after 10m, take the left fork, down through the wood towards daylight on the field below.

Turn left, and follow the path through a kissing-gate, and back to the Stretton Rd. Use the pavement on the right-hand side until 20m after the garage, when you should use the crossing (take care). Using the pavement on the left-hand side, follow the road back into Much Wenlock.
